

Grounds: The motion to adopt a resolution on adjournment of the General Meeting was justified by the high degree of complexity of the matter covered in the proposed resolution of the Extraordinary General Meeting and the desire to enable the shareholders to conduct further analyses before making a decision on how to vote on the proposed resolution.